Realise Your Dreams, Discover Your Place in the World.

Discovering your place in the world is no easy feat. The decisions are endless — from deciding what to study to forecasting your future career. To guide you in this pursuit, we have carefully curated this Undergraduate Employability Guide, which you now hold in your hands. It is our aim that the contents of this guide will empower you with insights, resources, and real-world experiences that will help you to make informed decisions about your future.

Within these pages, you will also find stories of our alumni who have forged their own paths in various industries and sectors. May their experiences serve as beacons of inspiration, illuminating the possibilities that await you. In years to come, your professional path will not only be an emblem of success or a mode for income; it will be the realisation of your higher purpose and the cumulation of your talents, skills, and interests for contribution to society. Your place in this world is the intersection where your skills align with your values, and where you can make a lasting impact.

At the University of Nottingham Malaysia, we are committed to helping you achieve your highest aspirations. 'Your Place in the World' is more than just a theme; it is a call to action. It urges you to delve into the depths of self-discovery, to reflect on your unique strengths, and to embark on a journey of personal and professional growth.

Your adventure begins now. Embrace the possibilities, embrace the challenges, and discover Your Place in the World.

Your Place to Discover What's Next

This guide is designed to be your compass, pointing you towards what could be through inspiring stories from our alumni in various fields of work. Here's how to use it:

Start with your Interests

Browse through this guide to locate the different programmes that match your personal interests and aspirations. Our programmes fall under two faculties: the Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences and the Faculty of Science and Engineering, whose sections are indicated in the index page.

Explore Salary Insights and Potential Employers

This guide also offers information on potential graduate salary ranges and companies that you could work with upon graduation. This information has been collected by the university over time and through engagement with employers that hire our graduates. Understanding these aspects will help you make informed decisions about your future career path and give you a glimpse into the opportunities that await you.

Learn from our Alumni

One of the guide's most valuable features is the collection of stories shared by our alumni. Take the time to read their experiences, insights, and advice, as it will help you gain valuable perspectives and motivate you to pursue your own passions with confidence.

Take Action

As you read through the booklet, remember that knowledge alone is not enough — action is key. Use the insights, advice, and resources to shape your personal career strategy through further research and engagement with our experts. Whether it's joining professional associations, seeking internships, or engaging in extracurricular activities, take proactive steps to enhance your employability and stand out in a competitive field. Our award-winning Careers Advisory Services office is ready to assist you when you enrol at the University of Nottingham Malaysia.

When I first embarked on my BSc Applied Psychology and Management Studies programme, I must admit that I wasn't the most dedicated student. However, everything changed in the summer of 2021 when my father was diagnosed with stage 3 cancer. As the eldest son in my family, this life-altering event became a turning point for me. It was during this challenging period that I discovered a strong determination within myself. I am forever grateful to my professors, Dr. Angeli Santos, Dr. Hazel, and Ms. Regina, who supported me wholeheartedly during my final year, even when I wasn't the most exemplary student. As I reflect on my journey, I am filled with gratitude for the profound impact the University of Nottingham Malaysia has had on my life. While my father's illness may have played a pivotal role in my personal transformation, it was the unwavering support of my professors and the invaluable lessons learned that shaped me into a resilient and determined individual.

My four-year academic journey at UNM was inspiring and memorable. One aspect of UNM that truly captivated me is the serene and idyllic campus environment. Being secluded from the chaotic urban life provided a conducive atmosphere for me to focus on my studies. The campus community also stands out for its exceptional diversity and inclusivity. Additionally, the focus of UNM's curriculum on fostering intellectual autonomy in its students is truly commendable. Rather than limiting our minds to a rigid, traditional curriculum, the institution places a strong emphasis on stimulating our innate creativity and originality. This approach not only equips us with the necessary skills to thrive in future workplaces but also empowers us to face the challenges of our daily lives.

UNM has instilled confidence within me, enabling me to tackle real-world challenges with resilience. The university's myriad advantages include connecting with a diverse group of friends and lecturers from various backgrounds and fostering a rich learning environment. Additionally, I appreciated the freedom of speech upheld at the university, where open discussions were encouraged without resorting to offensive language. One invaluable lesson I learned at UNM was the importance of taking risks and embracing failure as part of the learning process. Furthermore, I greatly benefited from the guidance of UNM's Careers Advisory Office, which encouraged me to pursue multiple internships, giving me a competitive edge and invaluable practical experience.

UNM has been instrumental in fostering my entrepreneurial spirit as a student. The vibrant clubs and societies (C&S) scene gave me incredible opportunities to shape my entrepreneurial acumen. It was like a sandbox for my early ideas, allowing me to explore and experiment. I seized the chance to kick off a sports club, sell ready-to-eat meals online, and even engage with nearby indigenous communities, laying the foundation for what has now become my social enterprise. This experience taught me valuable skills in navigating diverse contexts and bringing people together to achieve shared goals — skills that continue to serve me today. UNM's ability to attract a diverse range of individuals and place them close to one another, sharing facilities and activities, has genuinely enriched my global citizen experience. Interacting with my peers has opened my mind to endless possibilities and expanded my horizons.

VIVIEN CHONG

2011 graduate | Malaysian
Founder of Pink N' Proper

I made the decision to study MPharm at UNM because the university offered an excellent programme with a highly regarded reputation, yet the tuition fees remained affordable. Currently ranked among the top 10 in the world, UNM holds high standards while also being considerate of financial constraints. Graduating from UNM instantly garners recognition throughout the UK. For those contemplating pivoting from their chosen field of study, I would strongly advise having a backup plan in place. It is crucial to ensure you have sufficient funds to support your transition. In my personal experience, before venturing into the world of Pink N' Proper, I diligently saved a considerable amount. The starting pay in the pharmaceutical profession is reasonable, allowing me to accumulate the necessary resources until I could commit to Pink N' Proper full-time.
